KnowledgePath

Move beyond course content you know, and focus on mastering new knowledge and skills

Instructors guide students through the course and receive data on student learning so they can provide personalized feedback and support

Learning materials are presented to students in various formats which may include video, audio, text, or presentations

The use of digital course materials in KnowledgePath courses makes it a more affordable option

SOUL
Social Online Universal Learning