

Virtual Learning Communities

- VLC have been created to provide students with a forum where they can network with their peers, and where they can receive information, tools, and advice specific to their major
 - Discussion board forum
 - Job postings
 - Articles/videos on hot topics in the industry
 - Access to subject matter experts (program directors and/or lead faculty)
- Each degree program has their own community
- VLCs provide a platform for mentoring relationships as well as:
 - Peer to peer mentoring
 - Community professionals mentoring