

Thomas G. Carr Award

It is my honor to present the Thomas G. Carr Award.

Endowed by the Sidney E. Helliwell family in honor of Thomas G. Carr, Bay Path's first president, the award is presented to a member of the traditional sophomore class, and selected by the Student Life division. Criteria for selection of recipient include academic achievement, character, and service to the university or community that reflect the standards and values at Bay Path. The Family requests that the recipient be a leader who works "behind the scenes" on college activities and projects for which she is not remunerated.

This year, the Thomas G. Carr award is presented to Madison St. Marie.

Madison St. Marie, is a vibrant and nurturing leader. Maddie from Turners Fall, MA, and is majoring in pre-med and biotechnology. Her involvement as a member of the Student Event Committee (SEC) for the past two years has been immeasurable. Maddie consistently strives to enhance the enjoyment of those around by regularly MCing for campus events and ensuring that everyone around her is involved. She pushes herself to think of new opportunities for programming by regularly eliciting student feedback. Outside of SEC, Maddie takes great pride in her involvement as a Page Singer and is deeply invested in her studies. She is an all-around rockstar!

Maddie, thank you for your impact at Bay Path and Congratulations!
